This and That...

Thanks to all who have supported our missionary efforts by prayer and coins! We are well on our way to meeting our goals. The DR orphanage is near the Haitian border but in the north. Fortunately, the Hogar Emmanuel Mission felt only a small tremor and there was no damage to the buildings or where we stay. Let us pray for our Haitian brothers and sisters in a sustained, real way.

The replacement of the windows and doors at St. Thomas More in the hallway connecting the parking lot to the church will begin this week as well as the north side of the rectory. This will replace the aged and currently un-openable doors to the courtyard and result in significant energy savings. We do not have enough funds to complete the rest of the rectory and hall at this time but will tackle the two most deteriorating sections.

This week begins Catholic Schools Week. Thanks to the Msgr. Clark families for hosting and sponsoring coffee hours this weekend to show appreciation for all your support of Catholic education. Many of our children attend Catholic schools. We pray to keep this education affordable and in reach of as many families as possible.

The stained glass window project for St. Veronica continues. A new brief video is on our website to check in to the progress being made on one of the Marian windows and to meet one of the talented artists in Hunt Stained Glass Studios in Pittsburgh working on this. The target is to unveil them on Easter morning during the singing of the Alleluia!

It is with joy we announce our parish Lenten Mission for Sunday, Feb 21 - Tuesday, February 23rd. Fr. Jack Gleason of Tulsa, Oklahoma will be our preacher...details will follow soon.

Lent is fast approaching! May be it's time to start planning some fasting, charity and penitential practices. We will be distributing a stone engraved with a word/thought for Lent this year to anyone who comes Ash Wednesday. Stay tuned!

Our parish feast will be June 18-20th. Archbishop Edwin O'Brien of Baltimore has agreed to come to our Mass and procession. Many graces to come our way!

In Christ Jesus,
Fr. Tailon
