Happy Feast – St. Thomas More ...pray for us!

By the time you read this our St. Thomas More Feast is well underway. If you attended another mass this weekend why not come to process and walk with the Lord by meeting us at 11 am for the one hour procession around the Pier. May our devotion to Christ and His Church increase by St. Thomas More's example and witness. Thanks to all who have helped make this weekend one of graces and success!

The parish survey has been mailed and should be received any day at your home. Each envelope has two copies. More copies are available at the rectory if there are others in your home or you are not formally registered but a spiritual member of our parish.

The expanded nine-mass weekend schedule begins on 4th of July weekend. "Last Call" Mass returns Sundays at 8pm at St. Veronica Chapel beginning that holiday weekend. Be sure to check our website for expanded mass times, including daily mass offerings at St. Veronica.

We have been putting cones along Route 1A as an experiment enabling for a safer right-turn for people exiting our lot and for our condo neighbors next door. You will note we requested and received a new cross walk at St. Veronica and signage for pedestrians at our driveway. Thank you for your patience as we continue to try to keep all safe and have orderly parking and hospitality. Being especially attentive to walkers during our peak summer season is appreciated!

Thanks to all who have contributed to the "Lessons of Love" campaign to provide supplies for the girl's school in Afghanistan run by our Special Forces Matthew Vargas. I am happy (and proud) to report we have already shipped over 400 lbs. of supplies! Thanks to our coordinators and donors. Cpt. Vargas promises photos and video to be posted to our website as soon as it all arrives.

A reminder of the fast-approaching liturgical English language changes in Advent. We will begin bulletin updates about the coming changes and host some workshops in late summer to explore the history, verbiage and richness of our Catholic liturgy. Stay tuned and open!

Welcome to all our guests and summer parishioners – you enrich us!
