SEPTEMBER 5, 2010

Welcome Missie Antone – new Coordinator of Religious Education!

It is with great enthusiasm and joy that we welcome our new Coordinator of Religious Education to our parish! Missie Antone lives in Wakefield and has been a member of St. Mary Star of the Sea parish and deeply involved in their catechetical program.

She attended Providence College and obtained a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English and Theater with a minor in history. She has served as the Neuro-Rehab and Psychiatric Case Manager for St. Joseph Hospital and later as Director of Admissions and Marketing at Greenwood Health Center in Warwick. More recently she has tutored secondary students in English Literature and advanced writing skills. She has volunteered at Families First mentoring the New Moms program. She is an avid runner and a triathlete! She is married to Andrew Antone and they have two boys Jack (8 years old) and Harry (10 years old) who both attend our Msgr. Clark School.

She comes to us wanting to share and build our faith. She is energetic, sincere and ready to go. Let us offer our prayerful encouragement and welcome!

Our second mailing (after most of the first was lost by the Postal Service) was mailed this week and should have arrived in everyone's home by Thursday. Thanks to the many volunteers who contributed to the heroic effort to get this mailing in a short time. If you did not receive a mailing please let us know. Brochures are available at the doors of both churches. The construction/repairs have begun in earnest and there was a mad dash to close and seal the re-pitched roof before Hurricane Earl came near us.

The new statue of Mary and the Christ Child was unveiled last week at St. Veronica Chapel. This was gifted to us from the closed Sacred Heart Church, Pawtucket, RI. Thanks to all who made this possible especially Pariseault Movers who donated their time and men to "save" Our Lady!

This weekend concludes our summer schedule. We will now resume our regular six-mass weekends. Fr. Young remains with us (thankfully) until October 1st.
