OCTOBER 3, 2010

Rev. Adam A. Young
Column Sunday Oct. 3, 2010

I would like to thank everyone for a wonderful “farewell” Mass and reception last Sunday, especially VJ Simonelli and his intrepid team of Social Committee volunteers. I was moved by all the kind words of encouragement and promises of prayers by the many people who attended. The Marimba instrument added an almost Caribbean feel to Msgr. Halloran Hall! All in all, I could not have asked for a better send off from my first priestly assignment.

Looking back on my summer here at St. Thomas More, I was humbled by the many ways in which I was able to serve as a newly ordained priest. Sometimes a new priest can have the attitude that he is going to come into a parish and do all the teaching, but it was quite the opposite in my experience. I was certainly the student, learning over and over how God uses His priesthood to be present to His people.

In the early Church, the priest was considered a “Christ-bearer”. He was one who brought Christ to the people, through his preaching, through the celebration of the sacraments, through imitating Jesus the High Priest. St. Augustine famously told his people, “I am a Christian for my sake, and I am a priest for your sake.” It is the responsibility of the priest, with God’s grace, to shepherd his flock to heaven by bringing Christ to them on earth. How humbling it is to be called to such a vocation!

Unfortunately in today’s world, it is very difficult to hear God’s voice in the midst of life’s many noises and distractions. That is why it is more important than ever to encourage vocations to the priesthood. The best way to do this is to pray! Pray that many will hear God’s call. Another good way to encourage vocations is to let young men know they’d be good. If there is anyone in your family or in the parish you think would make an excellent priest, tell them!

The priesthood is one of the most beautiful vocations in the world, and I am thankful everyday that God has called me to participate in it! I thank you again for a grace-filled summer and for all your prayers for me during my final year of studies in Rome, and I urge you to continue to pray for all priests, the “Christ-bearers” of our Church!
